Scripture

Matthew 5: 13-16

13 “You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people’s feet.

14 “You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden.

15 Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house.

16 In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

1. Who We Are Called To Be

v. 13: You are the _____ of the earth.

v. 14: You are the _____ of the world.

2. What We Are Called To Do

v. 13: You are salt in relation to the _____.

v. 14: You are light in relation to the _____.

Let’s first look at salt.

Salt _____ and _____.

“What is good in society his followers [Christians] keep wholesome. What is corrupt they oppose; they penetrate society for good and act as a kind of moral antiseptic.”

3. How We Are Called To Do It

v. 14 Light is distinguishable from _____.

v. 15: Christians are to live _____ lives.

Suggested Application Questions:

1. What are some false notions about what it means to be “salt and light” that you need to unlearn?
2. What are some disassociations that you need to make so that the world may see your association with Christ?
3. What are some ways you can be more purposeful in your life? Where are you placing yourself, purposefully, so that your light may shine before others?
